

Sport BC Community Sport Hero Award Winner – March 2010: Brian Kimoto
Nominated by Action Schools! BC and Premier's Sport Awards Program (p.s.a.p.)

Brian Kimoto has worked at Wix-Brown Elementary in Langley for over 25 years. As a teacher, Brian is a true role model for his students through his involvement with sports in his school and his community.

As a healthy living advocate, Brian works with staff at Wix-Brown to create a healthy, active school culture and supports their involvement in school based initiatives like Action Schools! BC and the Premier's Sport Awards Program (p.s.a.p.). Since his first days at Wix-Brown in 1984, Brian has been closely involved in his school's sports programming and has volunteered as a coach in basketball, volleyball, track and field, and cross country.

For over 15 years, Brian has taken the initiative to organize a regional track and field meet for elementary schools. The event provides an opportunity for students in the Langley area to be exposed to the sport of track and field through friendly competition and gives them a chance to demonstrate their athletic abilities at a regional level. According to the principal at Wix-Brown, Brian is extremely dedicated to providing students with opportunities to reach their highest athletic potential.

As a dedicated father, Brian has always been keen to help with his children's volleyball, basketball and track and field teams. Through coaching and organizing tournaments, Brian's involvement goes above and beyond his duties as a parent.

On a personal level, Brian maintains a healthy lifestyle by playing tennis, jogging, and riding his bike.

As a supporter and role model of physical activity in the Langley area for more than 25 years, Brian Kimoto is a Community Sport Hero.
